

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Year 3
Ancient Egyptians

To continue their learning about the Ancient Egyptians we found out about an instrument called a sistrum and made our own forest school versions. The children worked hard and persevered when threading the buttons on to the cotton. They really do look wonderful. Other children explored the building materials to make dens. There was lots of great conversation, negotiation and team work demonstrated.

