

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Year 3

Settlements

In class the children have been learning about different types of settlements and their features. The children were given a challenge to work as a group and create a type of settlement. They could choose a hamlet, village, town or city and could choose how they represented it. There was such a wonderful array of different creations. The children thought deeply about their settlement and could explain and describe all the elements they included.

