

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Year 3 had a great time making mud paint. They explored adding natural dyes and powder paint to change the colours. Some children made houses for the small teddies - there was some amazing attention to detail. The children also are developing their den building skills as well as making a Stone Age car - just like Fred Flintstone!

