

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Year 3 have been learning about the Stone Age and have been developing their shelter building skills. This week the tripod lashing has become more independent. We have tried to use some Stone Age tools (a stick!) to carve out an old log. We have also been given the responsibility to be tarp leaders to fold the tarpaulins away.

