

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Year 1 -
Autumn

Today the children were inspired by their English book Astro Girl by Ken Wilson-Max. We made planets using natural materials, the children thought carefully about the colours and properties of each planet and matched leaves and other natural materials to match, for example a catkin was used to create Saturn's rings. Some of the children even created a launchpad and rocket to get to space.

