

Year 1 -
Living
Things

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Today we tried to start our session reading our story but the heavens opened and we all got a bit distracted! So we all tried to catch raindrops on our tongues instead. The children were then inspired to build shelters, experiment with the water and create their own plant ID books. We finished our session, when the sun had come out, by reading Home by Patricia Hegarty where we learned about different animal homes.

