

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Year 1 -
Plants

We started our session today by sharing the book Tree Spirits by Louise Wannier. Inspired by the illustrations, we then made our own tree spirits using natural materials for each of our adopted trees. The children thought carefully about what the face might look like and the materials that they could use. Some children collected different items and created a band, playing different rhythms together demonstrating great teamwork.

