

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Reception -
Come
Outside

Today we shared the story of 'What the ladybird heard.' We discussed the map in the story and this inspired some children to have a go and draw their own maps. Some were of the story while others were of Upton and where they live. The children also took full advantage of the muddy puddles, showing great interest and curiosity.

