

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Reception have been reading the book 'Where the Wild Things Are'. So, today we decided to have our own Wild Rumpus in Forest School. The children made nature crowns, built thrones for the 'Wild Things' royalty and had a great time making music using a range of items found in Forest School. We had a 'Wild' time!

