

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

*Reception -
All about me*

Reception read the story of 'Elmer the Patchwork Elephant'. We then went on to explore the different colours we could find in Forest School. Some made a large patchwork elephant using different coloured leaves. Some had a very muddy time exploring the rain water and puddles! Some of the class showed some wonderful team work collecting wood to sell for the winter!

