

THIS WEEK IN FOREST SCHOOL...

Year 2 showed their scientific side today. They made a prediction and investigated their thoughts. We managed to wet the dried up clay and used some of it to make clay sculptures and used it like paint with the stencils. We had some stunning 'Out of this World' natural art work too.

